

Margaret at "No. 10"
after Tokyo

MARGARET'S AIM

Setting her sights on Tokyo records in cross-country Mrs. Margaret Gibbs of Woodstock, Conn., today, who is taking part in the Paralympic Games for the physically handicapped in this year's Olympic city.

Margaret, a telephoneist at Chrysler Technical College, is competing in the steeplechase, swimming, canoe and javelin events.

MARGARET RECEIVED HER ARCHERY TRAINING WITH THE C.M.O. BOWMEN.

← MARGARET GIBBS

Party at No. 10 for Paralympics team

Mrs. Wilson and her son Giles talking to Miss P. Foulds at 10 Downing Street yesterday when the Prime Minister entertained the wheelchair sportsmen and sportswomen who took part in the Paralympic Games in Tokyo. Miss Foulds won three gold medals.